No. 925.

Last Saturday arrived the Mail due from Holland.

Vienna, May 24. O. S.

FFAIRS in Hungary are in such a Situation, as would be desperate, did not the Prospect of a Peace give Reason to hope for a speedy Cessation of Arms. The Post of Meadia, which is guarded by 600 Imperialists, under the Count Piccolomini, was attack'd the first Time on the 6th of May by 2000 Turks, whose Attack lasted all Day. They came on again with the same Fury next Day, but with as little Success; so that they retir'd again, and seem'd to have quite abandon'd the Undertaking; but on the 9th, they return'd with a fresh Reinforcement, 5 Guns and several Mortars, and play'd with their Artillery on the Post of Meadia, from that Day to the 13th, but without Success; for the Germans ruin'd the Turks Batteries as fast almost as they erected them. In these different Attacks 'tis computed, that the Turks lost above 2000 Men. It appears after all, that their Efforts against Meadia were with no other View than to force a Passage into the Bannate of Temiswar; for after a Discovery made by one of their Parties of a proper Defile, by which they might pass into that District, they left off attacking Meadia, and enter'd the said Defile with 5 or 6000 Men, who have cut off all Communication betwixt Meadia, and Temiswar, so that we know not what has pass'd at the former Place since the 13th. The worst on't is, that the very Country People in some Parts of the Bannate of Temiswar, have join'd the Turks, and commit all kinds of Ravage with 'em, so that in some Villages where they found the Inhabitants well affected to the Emperor, they put the greatest Part of 'em to the Sword. They even had the Assurance to fall upon a Piquet Guard of the Garison of Temiswar; but a Detachment from the Place went in quest of 'em, and took 30 of 'em, who were immediately hang'd; and for the greater Terror, a certain Number of them was obliged to serve as Executioners to the others.

We have Advice, that when Prince Ragotski was told the Emperor had set a Price upon his Head, he made Proclamation, that whoever should bring the Great Duke to him, dead or alive, should have a Reward of 10,000 Ducats. But these Animosities will no doubt be soon at an End, since on the 21st ult. we received two more Expresses from Constantinople, whose Dispatches confirm the Appearances of a Peace between the Courts of Vienna, Russia, and the Porte. 'Tis also positively said, that by the principal Articles of this Peace, the Treaty of Passarowitz is to be renewed for 24 Years, between the Emperor and the Grand Seignior; that Russia shall restore Oczakow, and keep Asoph; and that the three Powers shall make a new Regulation of their Boundaries.

The Imperial Court having had all the necessary Proofs of the Falshood of the Reports concerning the Discovery of a Conspiracy in Transilvania, has sent Orders for the Release of several Persons who were taken up there upon Suspicion.

The News we had last Post of an Advantage gain'd by the Imperialists near Old Orsova, and which was first brought to Laxemburg by the Count de Staremberg, Colonel of a Regiment of that Name, is confirm'd with this Circumstance, nevertheless, that they took but 12 Standards from the Turks.

P. S. Just now we hear, that the Turks have taken Meadia, Colonel Piccolomini having been obliged to capitulate, after he had sustained several other Attacks. Prince Esterhazy and Count Charles Palfi having had high Words at Laxemburg, the Emperor ordered them to be both put under an Arrest; but they are since reconciled and set at Liberty.

Petersburgh, May 13. The last Advices from the Ukraine say, that all the Russian Troops that were assembled on the Nieper, had actually pass'd that River, and tho' divided at present into three Bodies, which take as many different Routes for the Convenience of Forage, they are to rendezvous again at some small Distance from the Nieper. 'Tis generally reported here, that the Count de Munich will open the Campaign with the Siege of Bender. As the Nieper is very broad and rapid near that City, 'tis thought the General will be obliged to go up that River till he comes almost as high as Chocaim, where 'tis not near so broad, that he may pass it with much less Danger.

L O N D O N.

According to the freshest Advices from Germany, the Great Duke of Tuscany was not yet set out for the Army; but the Velt Marshal the Count de Knigsegg, President of the Council of War, arrived at Belgrade the 17th ult.

Letters of the 20th ult. O. S. from Warsaw, mention Advices from Velhinia, that the Turks have actually block'd up Oczakow, so that some thousand Russians who intended to throw themselves into the Town could not enter it.

M. de Beausobre, an eminent Minister of the Gospel at Berlin, and Author of several learned Treatises, is lately dead, to the great Loss of the Republick of Letters.

And from Dresden, there's Advice of the Death of Count Sapieha, General of the Artillery in Lithuania, who was scarce 40 Years of Age, and died of an Apoplexy.

Sir Cyril Wych, the British Plenipotentiary to the Circle of Lower Saxony, is set out for Paris to take Possession of an Estate fallen to him.

The Differences betwixt the Courts of Vienna and Turin, is every Day more and more difficult to be accommodated, if we may believe the Advices from the Milanese, which say, that the King of Sardinia is putting those Inhabitants under military Execution, who refuse to own his Authority over the five Fiets of which is Troops have taken Possession.

Letters of the 10th ult. from Cadiz say, that three of the six Men of War ordered to be equipp'd for the West Indies, sailed the Day before for the Havanna, but that 'twas uncertain whether the other three would follow, because they had Letters but the Day before from Madrid; from which they prognosticate, that the Courts of England and Spain are in a likely way to adjust their Differences.

Those of the 16th O. S. from Madrid say, that our Minister, Mr. Keene, having insisted several Times for an Answer to two Memorials which he lately presented to the Spanish Court, and being promised that he should have the Answer as soon as an Express expected from London was arrived; and the said Express arriving accordingly at Aranjuez on the 14th, in which there was a Packet also for Mr. Keene, the said Minister went to Court next Day, and had a Conference with the Marquis de la Quadra, the Secretary of State, who told him that the Express which arrived the Day before, was the very Express that he expected in order to return an Answer to his last Memorials; that the said Answer should be delivered to him in a few Days, and that 'twas the King's earnest Desire the Matters in Dispute might be amicably determined. And a Letter of the 17th from Madrid actually says, that on that very Day the Marquis de la Quadra, Secretary of State, delivered a very ample Answer to Mr. Keene, to the several Memorials which he had given to the Court, and that afterwards Mr. Keene dispatch'd an Express to carry the Answer to Great Britain.

Advices from Lisbon, which are of the 16th ult. O. S. say, that several Courts, and particularly the Queen Dowager of Spain, having importun'd his Portuguese Majesty to be reconciled to the Infante Don Emanuel his Brother, and his Majesty having order'd Notice to be sent to him, that whenever he thought fit to return thither he should be glad to see him; the said Don Emanuel quitted Bayonne instantly, and arrived on the very Day that our Letters are dated at Lisbon, where the Reconciliation causes great Joy both at Court and in the City.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, in Common-Council assembled, do with Hearts full of Joy approach your Throne, and humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations on the happy Increase of your Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince, and therein the strengthening and establishing the Religious and Civil Rights of this Country, and the Liberties of Europe.

We are so sensible of the many Blessings of your Majesty's Reign, that from Interest as well as Duty, we wish it long and prosperous; and when in Course of Time this Prince shall come to reign, may He, by the Example of his Royal Predecessors, have learn'd to rule a free but obedient People, and become the Guardian of those Liberties, which by their Precepts he will have been taught to protect.

We should be wanting in that Duty we owe to your Majesty, if we did not take this Opportunity of testifying our Joy, and assuring your Majesty of our Fidelity and Affection.

Signed by Order of Court,

MILES MAN.

To which is Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for your Congratulations on this Occasion, and for this Mark of your Duty and Affection to Me and my Family. The City of London may always depend upon my Favour and Protection.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of his Majesty's Accession to the Crown, the Morning was ushered in with Ringing of Bells, at Noon his Majesty received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, at his Palace at Kensington. The Park and Tower Guns were fired, and the Evening concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other publick Demonstrations of Joy and Loyalty throughout the Cities and Suburbs of London and Westminster.

The same Day the Horse and Foot Guards appeared in their new Cloathing.

And we hear that both Horse and Foot will speedily be Reviewed in Hyde Park by their respective General Officers, and not by his Majesty, as has been reported.

On Friday Night last about 7 o'Clock, two Men came to the Rose and Crown Inn at Norwood near Dulwich, and called for a Bottle of Cyder, and as soon as they paid for it, they made as if they was going about their Business, by taking their Leave; but presently returned again, and took an Opportunity while the Hostler was busy, to take out of the Stables two Gentlemen's Horses, and rode off.

To-morrow the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole comes to Town to his House in Downing-street, Westminster, from Capt. Jackson's Lodge in Richmond Park; and the same Day a Board of Treasury will be held.

We hear that the Lord Duncarton, Heir apparent to the Right Hon. the Earl of Shelbourn of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Brother-in-Law to the present Lord Montjoy, will stand Candidate for Cardiff, in the room of his Lordship.

This Morning Mr. Conyers, Son of Edward Conyers, Esq; Member of Parliament for East Grinstead in Suffex, and Nephew to the Right Hon. the Earl of Portchester, sets out for Dover in order to embark for Calais, and proceed on his Travels.

On Friday last died at his House in Drury-lane, the noted Mr. Eustace, one of the greatest Solicitors (in his Way) on Criminal Matters in England.

Westminster Bridge-Office, June 9th, 1738.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 9th Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, for building a Bridge cross the River Thames, from the City of Westminster, to the opposite Shore in the County of Surry: It is, among other things enacted, for preventing wilful and malicious Damaging and Destroying the said Bridge, or any Part thereof, or Hindering and Interrupting the Building of the same. That if any Person or Persons shall wilfully and maliciously blow up, pull down, or destroy the said Bridge, or any Part thereof, or attempt so to do, or unlawfully, and without Authority from the Commissioners, for building the said Bridge, or their Successors, remove or take away any Works thereto belonging, or in any wise direct or procure the same to be done, whereby the said Bridge, or the Works thereof may be damaged, or the Lives of the Passengers endanger'd, such Offender or Offenders being lawfully convicted, shall be adjudged guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as a Felon, without Benefit of Clergy.

The said Commissioners therefore think it proper to give this publick Notice of the same, lest unwary Persons should incur the Penalty enacted by the said Law.

BICKHAM'S MUSICAL ENTERTAINER.
Containing FOUR SONGS.

(Price SIX - PENCE)

Song I. THE Invitation to Mira.

1. Forlorn Pastorella. 3. Love Relapse.
4. Moor's Engagement to Margery. The Musick of all the Plates will be corrected by Mr. Vincent, the Head Pieces design'd by the celebrated Gravelet, and engrav'd by G. Bickham, jun.

Whereas the Success of this Work hath depended on the Encouragement and Assistance of Gentlemen and Ladies of the most elegant Taste and Understanding in Poetry, Musick, and Engraving, and by whose Friendship it hath hitherto been carried on with Credit; but as Undertakings of this Kind are liable to be pirated, mimick'd, imitated, and torn to Pieces, when found successful, so this hath met with that Fate by another Work of the same Kind, and upon the same Principle, which is published with large Puffs and Encomiums, and not without scandalous Reflections and Disparagements of this; therefore the Undertaker submits it to a candid Decision of his Subscribers and Lovers of Musick, Engraving, &c. to take which of them appears to be performed with the most Propriety, when compar'd, and not be drawn away by a Quack Advertisement.
